Lynnette M,¹ Complainant,

v.

Denis R. McDonough,
Secretary,
Department of Veterans Affairs,
Agency.

Appeal No. 2024003958

Agency No. 20DR-0005-2024-15684

DECISION

Complainant filed a timely appeal with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC or Commission) from the Agency's decision dated May 28, 2024, dismissing her complaint of unlawful employment discrimination in violation of Section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Rehabilitation Act), as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 791 et seq. Upon review, the Commission finds that Complainant's complaint was properly dismissed for failure to state a claim.

ISSUES PRESENTED

The issue presented before the Commission is whether Complainant's complaint was properly dismissed pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 1614.107(a)(1), for failure to state a claim.

¹ This case has been randomly assigned a pseudonym which will replace Complainant's name when the decision is published to non-parties and the Commission's website.

BACKGROUND

At the time of events giving rise to this complaint, Complainant worked as a Human Resources Specialist in Washington, DC.

On April 9, 2024, Complainant filed a formal complaint alleging that the Agency subjected her to hostile workplace discrimination on the bases of disability and reprisal for prior protected EEO activity. According to the formal complaint and other relevant documents contained in the record, on December 27, 2023, Complainant learned from the investigator completing her background investigation that information was received from her former management about how she was thought to be under the influence of drugs while on duty. Additionally, management provided the investigator with the opinion that Complainant should not be a federal employee or given elevated privileges. Subsequently, the Agency's Human Resources security personnel team, which conducted the background check suitability determination, issued Complainant a letter about the findings made during the background investigation. The investigation returned a successful adjudication for Complainant. However, Complainant maintains that her former management's actions have amounted to defamation, slander and continued harassment.

The Agency dismissed the complaint for failure to state a claim. The Agency explained that Complainant's allegations concern the Agency's administrative procedure, its conduction of a background check investigation and its outcomes. Claims regarding an administrative procedure such as a facilities background investigation and the results that come out of the investigation, to include statements made during the investigation, do not state a claim over which the EEOC has jurisdiction. The Agency reasoned that Complainant's claims are a collateral attack on the Agency's administrative process and not properly raised before the Commission. The proper forum for Complainant to challenge these matters is with the Agency's facility management component. Complainant filed the instant appeal.

CONTENTIONS ON APPEAL

Complainant primarily repeats her earlier claims. The Agency asks that we affirm its final decision.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

The Agency's decision to dismiss a complaint is subject to de novo review by the Commission, which requires the Commission to examine the record without regard to the factual and legal determinations of the previous decision maker and issue its decision based on the Commission's own assessment of the record and its interpretation of the law. 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405(a). The Commission should construe the complaint in the light most favorable to the complainant and take the complaint's allegations as true. See Cobb v. Department of the Treasury, EEOC Request No. 05970077 (March 13, 1997). Thus, all reasonable inferences that may be drawn from the complaint's allegations must be made in favor of the complainant.

ANALYSIS

The regulation set forth at 29 C.F.R. § 1614.107(a)(1) provides, in relevant part, that an agency shall dismiss a complaint that fails to state a claim. An agency shall accept a complaint from any aggrieved employee or applicant for employment who believes that he or she has been discriminated against by that agency because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disabling condition. 29 C.F.R. §§ 1614.103, .106(a). The Commission's federal sector case precedent has long defined an "aggrieved employee" as one who suffers a present harm or loss with respect to a term, condition, or privilege of employment for which there is a remedy. Diaz v. Dep't of the Air Force, EEOC Request No. 05931049 (Apr. 21, 1994).

The Commission has held that an employee cannot use the EEO complaint process to lodge a collateral attack on another proceeding. See Hannon v. Dep't of the Treasury, EEOC Appeal No. 05A01149 (May 8, 2003); Wills v. Dep't of Def., EEOC Request No. 05970596 (July 30, 1998); Kleinman v. U.S. Postal Serv., EEOC Request No. 05940585 (Sept. 22, 1994).

We find the complaint fails to state a claim. It is inappropriate to now attempt to use the EEO process to collaterally attack actions which are a result of the Agency's administrative procedure involving its background check suitability determination. We find, therefore, that the Agency correctly found that all matters comprising the instant complaint are inextricably intertwined with the Agency's administrative process. Complainant's concerns raised here must be addressed by the Agency's component which handles hiring/suitability determinations.

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, the Agency's final decision dismissing Complainant's complaint is affirmed.

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS - ON APPEAL RECONSIDERATION (M0124.1)

The Commission may, in its discretion, reconsider this appellate decision if Complainant or the Agency submits a written request that contains arguments or evidence that tend to establish that:

1. The appellate decision involved a clearly erroneous interpretation of material fact or law; or
2. The appellate decision will have a substantial impact on the policies, practices, or operations of the agency.

Requests for reconsideration must be filed with EEOC's Office of Federal Operations (OFO) within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of this decision. If the party requesting reconsideration elects to file a statement or brief in support of the request, that statement or brief must be filed together with the request for reconsideration. A party shall have twenty (20) calendar days from receipt of another party's request for reconsideration within which to submit a brief or statement in opposition. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405; Equal Employment Opportunity Management Directive for 29 C.F.R. Part 1614 (EEO MD-110), at Chap. 9 § VII.B (Aug. 5, 2015).

Complainant should submit their request for reconsideration, and any statement or brief in support of their request, via the EEOC Public Portal, which can be found at <https://publicportal.eeoc.gov/Portal/Login.aspx>

Alternatively, Complainant can submit their request and arguments to the Director, Office of Federal Operations, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, via regular mail addressed to P.O. Box 77960, Washington, DC 20013, or by certified mail addressed to 131 M Street, NE, Washington, DC 20507. In the absence of a legible postmark, a complainant's request to reconsider shall be deemed timely filed if OFO receives it by mail within five days of the expiration of the applicable filing period. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.604.

An agency's request for reconsideration must be submitted in digital format via the EEOC's Federal Sector EEO Portal (FedSEP). See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.403(g). Either party's request and/or statement or brief in opposition must also include proof of service on the other party, unless Complainant files their request via the EEOC Public Portal, in which case no proof of service is required.

Failure to file within the 30-day time period will result in dismissal of the party's request for reconsideration as untimely, unless extenuating circumstances prevented the timely filing of the request. Any supporting documentation must be submitted together with the request for reconsideration. The Commission will consider requests for reconsideration filed after the deadline only in very limited circumstances. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.604(f).

COMPLAINANT'S RIGHT TO FILE A CIVIL ACTION (S0124)

You have the right to file a civil action in an appropriate United States District Court within ninety (90) calendar days from the date that you receive this decision. If you file a civil action, you must name as the defendant in the complaint the person who is the official Agency head or department head, identifying that person by their full name and official title. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of your case in court. "Agency" or "department" means the national organization, and not the local office, facility or department in which you work. If you file a request to reconsider and also file a civil action, filing a civil action will terminate the administrative processing of your complaint.

RIGHT TO REQUEST COUNSEL (Z0815)

If you want to file a civil action but cannot pay the fees, costs, or security to do so, you may request permission from the court to proceed with the civil action without paying these fees or costs. Similarly, if you cannot afford an attorney to represent you in the civil action, you may request the court to appoint an attorney for you. You must submit the requests for waiver of court costs or appointment of an attorney directly to the court, not the Commission. The court has the sole discretion to grant or deny these types of requests.

Such requests do not alter the time limits for filing a civil action (please read the paragraph titled Complainant's Right to File a Civil Action for the specific time limits).
